

Born & Raised: Debbie was born in Anchorage and in 1963 moved to Kasilof where the family homesteaded and commercial fished. Debbie and her husband Dale live in Soldotna, but spend as much time as they can at their recreational cabin on Lower Coho Lake.

Education: Debbie graduated from Kenai High school in 1974.

Real Estate Experience: Debbie became a real estate agent in 1986. In 2003 Debbie, along with her husband Dale, started Redoubt Realty. Debbie has been a top real estate producer for many years, and has a lot of knowledge from her 31 years of selling real estate. She is knowledgeable about her industry and the real estate market.

Community Involvement: Debbie has served on the Board of Directors for the KP Board of Realtors, KP MLS, and the fundraising campaign for the new Central Peninsula Counseling building on Tyee Street.

Free Time: Debbie enjoys spending time with her two kids and two grandkids at the recreational cabin on Lower Coho Lake. In the summer everyone goes swimming, canoeing, and kayaking and in the winter there is lots of snow machining and sledding.

Spouse & Family: Debbie's husband Dale also works at Redoubt Realty. Debbie has two children and two grandchildren.
