

Born and Raised: Ed was born and raised on the Kenai Peninsula. He grew up on a homestead in Sterling and currently lives in Soldotna.

Education: Ed Graduated from Soldotna High School in 1981 and has six years of college. He has an AAS degree in engineer design drafting and petroleum engineer aid.

Past Jobs: Ed has worked for Marathon Oil for Five years, served as a legislative aid in 1987, and spent 6 years as assistant to the mayor for the KP Borough. Ed has served on the KP economic development board and as President of the KP Food Bank.

Real Estate Experience: Ed was a real estate agent in the 90's and renewed his licensed back in 2005 and has been actively selling real estate. Ed has a lot of contacts and real estate knowledge.

Free Time: Ed likes to Jet Ski, canoe, snow machine, and hangs out at the campfire with family and friends at his Whisper Lake property, where he hopes to build his dream home soon.

Spouse and Family: Ed's wife Leona owns Cornerstone Books and supplies, which caters to home school families and teachers. Ed and Leona have a daughter, Alyison.