

Born & Raised: Dale was born in Fairbanks while his parents were attending the University of Alaska, Fairbanks. After college they moved back to the Kenai Peninsula. Dale currently lives in the city of Soldotna.

Education/Military: Dale graduated from Soldotna High School in 1982; he attended AVTEC in Seward where he got a Forestry Technician degree. Dale spent 4 years in the US Marine Corps doing security duty and was stationed in Hawaii. After the military Dale attended the University of Alaska, Fairbanks & Anchorage.

Past Jobs: Dale has worked as a fire fighter for the US Forest District, worked for Cook Inlet Aquaculture Association at remote sites counting fish, worked as a camp manager on the Alyeska Pipeline, and was a Purchasing Agent at Alyeska Resort. Borough Mayor from 1999-2005.

Political Experience: Dale has been elected to the Soldotna City council four times for a total of 8 years. Dale is currently on the Borough Assembly; he has been elected two times, and has served five years on the assembly so far. Dale served as the assembly president in 2015 and is currently still on the assembly. In 1999 Dale was elected Kenai Peninsula Borough Mayor and was reelected in 2002.

Community Involvement: Dale has served on the Board of Directors for the KP Food Bank, Cook Inlet Aquaculture Association, CISPI, Rotary, the KP MLS, and the KP Association of Realtors. Dale was also President of the 2006 Arctic Winter Games Host Society. Dale has been on the board of directors of the Kenai Peninsula Builders Association and the state Builders Association. Dale is the past President of the KP Association of Realtors and is currently on the Kenai Peninsula Association of Realtors, Kenai Peninsula Economic Development District and the Soldotna Historical Society.

Real Estate Experience: Dale received his real estate licenses in 1994 and actively sold land & recreational property until 2000 when he let it lapse due to being elected Kenai Peninsula Borough Mayor. In 2005 Dale started to actively sell real estate again. Dale and his wife Debbie own Redoubt Realty where Dale is an Associate Broker. Dale actively sells commercial property, recreational property & land. In fact Dale sells more land & recreational property than any other licensee on the Kenai Peninsula. Dale was the realtor of the year for 2010.

Free Time: Dale enjoys hunting, fishing, snow machining and most any outdoor activity. Dale and Debbie have a cabin on Lower Coho Lake where they like to canoe, kayak, boat, snow machine, and hang out by the bonfire with family and friends.