

Raised in Maine, Marta is a hard working, honest, no-nonsense gal who gets the job done. She has a fire-in-the-belly for Alaska's Kenai Peninsula where she has resided for over 16 years. This great state is her home, and she wants to share her passion with you. Let Marta walk you to the door of your Alaskan Dream!

Marta has a master's degree in environmental engineering, and has worked in Alaska's oil industry as a land use permitter in Cook Inlet and the Kenai Peninsula Borough for over a decade. This breadth of experience makes Marta a one-stop-shop of knowledge for buying and selling on the Kenai.

Marta's interests include wood carving, growing vegetables, hiking Alaska's playground and being a Peninsula tour guide to out-of-town visitors.

Marta offers personal service and delivers results. Her persistence, attention to detail, friendly and personable nature make Marta your best choice for real estate representation on the Kenai Peninsula.
