

Matt was born in California, moved to Montana when he was 3, and to Alaska when he was 16. He graduated high school from Soldotna High School in 1995. In high school Matt got his first “real” job at the local hobby shop eventually becoming the Assistant Manager at Don’s Hobbies in Soldotna. Matt graduated from Kenai Peninsula College with an AS degree in 1997. Then Matt moved to Anchorage to attend the University of Alaska Anchorage, and he graduated from Wayland Baptist University’s Anchorage Campus with a Bachelor’s in business.

Matt started as a Jr High youth pastor, at Anchorage Baptist Temple (ABT) in Anchorage. Then transitioned into the Network administrator for ABT and Anchorage Christian Schools. In 2006 Matt brought his family back down to the Kenai Peninsula to be the Business Manager at his parent’s business, McKinley Service and Equipment an oilfield service provider to the inlet’s platforms and on shore facilities.

Matt is married to his beautiful Amy and they have five kids from 13 years old down to 1 year. Matt and Amy enjoy taking the kids fishing, four-wheeling, snow machining, and enjoying the local events on the Kenai Peninsula. Matt is also an avid woodworker, and photographer. Matt has been involved with many real estate transactions involving investments, and businesses. Including: buying and selling multiple properties both residential and commercial.